

PROGRAMS IN THE HUMANITIES & ARTS

ADVANCED SPANISH, CREATIVE WRITING, AND PHOTODOCUMENTARY

Study the Spanish language, Latin American cinema, creative writing and learn the basics of both theatrical and documentary filmmaking and editing using the latest in equipment and software. Perfect for Franklin majors! Homestay.

CREDITS 6 hours	TERM MAYMESTER
COURSES SPAN 3020 & 4080, ENGL 3800W & 4800W

ART, ASTRONOMY, AND JOURNALISM

Study stellar and galactic astronomy in the beautiful Costa Rican night skies while learning watercolor, drawing, photography, and graphic design. A special course in Environmental Journalism is now offered as part of this interdisciplinary experience. Homestay.

CREDITS 6 hours	TERM MAYMESTER
COURSES ARST 2220, 3120, & 4180, ASTR 1020/L, JRLC 5990

HOUSING AND HOUSEHOLD ECONOMICS

Participate in a Habitat for Humanity building project with Central America's largest Habitat operation! Classes offer a comparative exploration of family resource management and housing in the Latin American context. Homestay.

CREDITS 6 hours	TERM MAYMESTER
COURSES FIHC 3000, 3010, 3300

INTERNATIONAL PERSPECTIVES ON INTERRACIAL COMMUNICATION

Explore race, ethnicity, and interracial communication in a Latin American setting, traveling from the cloud forests of Monteverde to both the Pacific and Caribbean coasts, and the capital city, San Jose. One night homestay in an indigenous village, and lots of cultural immersion!

CREDITS 6 hours	DATES 1ST SUMMER SESSION
COURSES COMM 3820, 4830/6830, 4930, 7000, 7300 & 8550

SURFING AND SUSTAINABILITY: POLITICAL ECOLOGY IN COSTA RICA

Travel Costa Rica's Pacific coastline and develop ethnographic research skills as you engage foreign and local surfers, developers and real estate brokers, hotel owners, and others in an analysis of the impact of development on local culture and conservation efforts. Includes daily surfing!

CREDITS 6 hours	DATES 2ND SUMMER SESSION
COURSES ANTH/GEOC 4275/6275 & ANTH 4900/6900

LANGUAGE AND CULTURE SERVICE-LEARNING

Students will study the nexus between language and culture and how both impact the teaching of ESL/EFL. Travel will take students from Monteverde to the Cartago Province. Extended homestay.

CREDITS 6-9 hours	DATES 2ND SUMMER SESSION
COURSES LING 2100, LLED 4870/6870, 4620/6620, 5040/7040, 5730/7730, 5140/7140

NATURE AND ENVIRONMENTAL DESIGN SERVICE-LEARNING

Students engage in design charrettes and local design-build projects serving the UGACR campus and broader community.

CREDITS 6 hours	DATES 2ND SUMMER SESSION
COURSES LAND 4250, LAND 4910/6910

LATIN AMERICAN AND CARIBBEAN STUDIES

Study Spanish and Latin American Studies at the UGACR campus and in several locations around Costa Rica, including the Pacific Coast and the capital city of San José. Extended homestay.

CREDITS 9 hours	DATES SUMMER SESSION
COURSES SPAN 2001-4150 & LACS 4091S	